2. The Memorandum of Agreement between CIA and NSA has been carefully reviewed, and this office has no security objections to its presentation to NSA for its concurrence.

3. The Instructions to CIA Recruiters have been reviewed and this office has no security objections to the issuance of the instructions to CIA recruiters. It is understood that the standard instructions to recruiters issued by the Office of Personnel are to be supplemented by the above instructions.

4. It is further understood that the inclusion of the Foreign Service Institute in a consolidated testing plan such as the above is not envisioned for this year.
